

Bollettino di marzo

2024

Dear Dante friends,

Firstly, thanks to all who came along for our monthly Colazione e Scambiamoceli (Italian Book Exchange). Photographic evidence below of the avid interest and enjoyment of the participants!

Owing to Easter Sunday falling on the last Sunday of the month, the next Cantastorie and Colazione will take place in April - we'll keep you updated. The AGM is taking place on the 2nd of March, at the Dante rooms.

Two upcoming events worth noting as part of Auckland Council's World of Cultures: the Play Festival, celebrating cultural identity, and a talk by Giuseppe Gallina entitled Sale e fiducia, in which he discusses his deep connections with Aotearoa and the immigrant experience.

Italian harpist and folk musician Adriano Sangineto is currently touring New Zealand, and he'll be performing at the Devonport Folk Music Club on March 4th.

Academy Cinemas marks International Women's Day this month with classic films Riso Amaro, Le Amiche, and Adua e le compagne. Also of interest is the new release lo Capitano, from director Matteo Garrone (Gomorrah), winner of the Leone d'Argento at Venice 2023.

Buona Pasqua a tutti!

The Dante Team
