

Bollettino di agosto

2025

Dear Dante friends,

We have moved!

For those who haven't found us in our new home yet (we're still in the same building) there's a useful map here. Our regular Dante events continue as usual this month.

Thanks to all the staff and volunteers who helped with the move - see photos below!

Dante tutor Luca Manghi performs in a concert in St Heliers at the end of the month. The programme features the ear-catching combination of flute, marimba and piano.

And for those who missed out, or who would like to see a favourite film again, the Cinema Italiano festival will continue in Matakana in September.

A presto!

The Dante Team
